Back by Popular Demand, Movies in the Park Returns This Week to Assiniboine Park

For immediate release: Winnipeg, July 30, 2012 – Assiniboine Park is once again inviting the community to gather on the Lyric Lawn for free, fantastic family entertainment as the incredibly popular Movies in the Park returns for its second season, starting this Friday, August 3rd.

Presented by Scotiabank as part of Assiniboine Park's extensive 2012 Summer Arts & Entertainment Series, Movies in the Park features Hollywood blockbusters on a cinema-style 27 ft. wide outdoor screen at the Lyric Theatre. In 2011, it's estimated that over 25,000 took in the event during its four-week run.

"Movies in the Park was such a huge hit last year and we can't thank our sponsors enough for making sure we were able to offer it again this summer," said Lorne Perrin, VP of Marketing & Park Services with the Assiniboine Park Conservancy.

This summer's line-up is as follows:

August 3rd
7:00pm – Tangled 9:15pm – E.T.

August 10th
7:00pm – The Incredibles 9:15pm – Pirates of the Caribbean

August 17th
7:00pm – Happy Feet 2 9:15pm – Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone

August 24th
7:00pm – Dr. Seuss' The Lorax 9:15pm – Indiana Jones and the Last Crusade

Assiniboine Park's 2012 Summer Arts & Entertainment Series is made possible through generous community sponsorship, including support from the Richardson Foundation, Scotiabank Group and the Johnston Group.
